With regard to the Supreme Court Judgment and guideline issued in 1997 to provide for the effective enforcement of the basic human right of gender equality and gurantee against sexual harassment and circulars since 2004 to all the schools, advising them to establish a permanent cell and a committee and to develop guidelines to combat sexual harassment, violence against women and bullying at the sexual offences , reporting mechanisms and subsequent panel consequences. Keeping this in mind , the Government of India hopes to tackle the issues with a set of multidisciplinary prevention guidelines which are supported by legal provisions, the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act 2012.These guidelines serve as a method for numerous stakeholders from teachers to community welfare associations to the police to ensure that all possible steps are taken to prevent Child Abuse and empower children to recognize symptoms of potentially abusive situations. It has further advised the schools to be proactive by developing a conductive atmosphere on the campus , where the status of women/girl student is respected and they are treated equally without any bias or discrimination, Keeping the above guidelines in view , Saint Mother Teresa Convent School, Jamalpur, Sambhal has constituted Committee Against Sexual Harassment.
